Last Will and

I, ANTHONY MARTIN, being of crazy mind and able body, leave to Celeste Ponder a muzzle, so she won't open her big mouth so much, to my cousin Tracy Harris my brain because you'll probably need one NEXT YEAR! Vickie Griggs, I leave alone! . . . I, allegedly being HEATH HOLLY, do bequeath the following loved ones these treasures: to Leash, Kevin, Ami, etc., all my tapes; to Nat, and Leash, a ride to school on Tuesday and Friday mornings hereafter; to PCHS, a new dress code; to all teachers who've hassled me, "May Your Toilets Back Up"; to all underclassmen, "Adios, suckers"; and to Tia, my unconditional love. God Rules!!! I, REGINA STEELE, do hereby leave all my love and good wishes to my sister and best friend, Trina Steele. I leave my love and friendship to LaTanya Emerson, I will treasure your company always. I leave much luck and success to the cheerleaders, may you always have that Trojan spirit. Melanie Therrien — Assistant Editor
Stephanie Fibbe — Business Manager
Maxwell Duke — Photographer
Clinton Jacklin — Artist
Tim King
Lee Joyner
Mary Kate Walton
Bobby Smith
Amy Bailey
Rachel Walton — Editor of Newspaper

Brent Stewart
Andrea Carter
Carla Bannister
Kristal Clark
Julie Hogg
Sheila Brewer
Brenda Durden

As my years at PCHS draw to a close, I look back with regret, but, at the same time, forward with excitement — what will the future bring? I know this is not the typical Retrospect — absent is the black and gold cover — even the theme is quite different! But changes are what make life worth living and a yearbook enables you to live and relive those “Glorious High School Years.”

Special thanks to the staff — especially Melanie, the best friend and co-editor a person could hope for, and Maxwell — your camera saved the day! I leave you now, but I won't forget . . .

Love to all,

Laure
